Radio Systems Corporation® Named a Best Manufacturing and Production Workplace by Fortune Magazine

Great Place to Work® and FORTUNE have named Radio Systems Corporation® among top 20 best workplaces in manufacturing and production

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 17, 2018 – FORTUNE magazine named Radio Systems Corporation®, a leading global manufacturer of pet product solutions, as one of the top manufacturing and production workplaces in the nation. FORTUNE, along with an independent consulting firm, Great Place to Work® surveyed more than 29,000 team members from various companies, departments and job functions for this year’s list of 20 companies. Radio Systems Corporation® was ranked at No. 17 and is the only company on the list that is headquartered in Tennessee.

“We’re honored to receive this accolade from Fortune magazine,” said Willie Wallace, CEO of Radio Systems Corporation®. “This award is a testament that our values are not only consistently practiced but exemplified by our teammates. Whether you walk into our Tennessee headquarters, or into one of our many offices around the globe, we strive to create a culture that is focused on openness, equality, and teamwork. Our flat company structure fosters a culture where senior staff is never ‘off-limits’ for a formal meeting or casual chat.”

Radio Systems Corporation® represents the only pet company on the list. With more than 700 teammates around the globe, Radio Systems Corporation® is dedicated to ensuring all teammates have access to the tools they need to succeed including learning and development initiatives, wellness programs, and community engagement opportunities. The company has also been certified as a Great Place to Work® for the third year in row.
